No

1. Interactive Teaching Methods: Incorporate more interactive teaching strategies such as group discussions, case studies, and hands-on activities to engage students actively in the learning process. Using technology like smartboards and interactive apps can further enhance participation.

2. Personalized Feedback and Support: Provide regular and constructive feedback to students to address their individual learning needs. Offering mentorship or remedial sessions for struggling learners can bridge learning gaps.

3. Professional Development for Educators: Organize regular workshops and training sessions for teachers to keep them updated with modern pedagogical approaches, technological tools, and subject-specific advancements to ensure they deliver high-quality education.

Ok

Good

1) Asking students for their doubts
2) Encouraging students to participate in class discussion and activities
3) Creating a supportive learning environment where students feel comfortable sharing their ideas

Use better graphics and visual media to engage students well. .
Try to reach every student and ask for their doubts.
Make teaching a two way interaction

Strongly agree very good

If the student is upset after completing the study taught by the teacher on the next day, he should not get angry and ask him to understand
